

MAX

HOTEL
GARNI

In the middle.
But pleasantly different

The rates for our central location are conspicuously inconspicuous.

If you are the type who does not constantly need a bell boy, the MAX is the right place for you - and your wallet. The ambience is especially nice: wood, freshness and warm colours will certainly make you feel cosy. Only 600 meters from the Königsallee.

Stay at the MAX and use public transport free of charge. Without restrictions throughout the Rhine-Ruhr public transport association.

A good breakfast ensures a good day.

Your day will start well at the MAX and your appetite will increase when you enter the nicely decorated breakfast room. Enjoy a tasty meal that will keep you fit.

The Max can offer you something more private, more personal.

The MAX is not known for its endless number of rooms but for its individual charm, style and interior design. Everything is refreshingly above the norm. Choose from 11 sunlit rooms: single, doubles, triples. And all are comfortably furnished with showers, toilets, hairdryer, telephones and cable TV with DVD channels.
